NOTICES

I. THE KENYA INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATIONS (AMENDMENT) BILL (NATIONAL ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 19 OF 2013)

1) Notice is given that the Chairperson Departmental Committee on Energy, Information and Communication intends to move the following amendments to the Kenya Information Communication (Amendment) Bill (National Assembly Bill No. 19 of 2013) at the Committee Stage—

CLAUSE 2

THAT, clause 2 be amended in paragraph (c)—

(a) by deleting the definition of the term “Cabinet Secretary” and substituting therefor the following new definition—

“Cabinet Secretary” means the Cabinet Secretary for the time being responsible for information, communication and technology”;

(b) by inserting the following new definition in its proper alphabetical sequence—

“Media Council” means the Media Council of Kenya established under the Media Council Act.

CLAUSE 5

THAT, clause 5 be amended by deleting the proposed new section 5C.

CLAUSE 6

THAT, clause 6 be amended in the proposed new section 6(1) by deleting the word “There” appearing before the word “management” and substituting therefor the word “The”.

CLAUSE 7

THAT, clause 7 be amended—

(a) in the proposed new section 6B—

(i) by deleting subsection (1) and substituting therefor the following new subsection—

“Not later than sixty days prior to the occurrence of a vacancy in the office of chairperson or a member of the Board, the Cabinet Secretary shall, by notice in the Gazette and in at least two newspapers of national circulation, invite applications from qualified persons”;

(ii) by deleting subsections (3) and (4) and substituting therefor the following new subsections—

“(3) The Cabinet Secretary shall, within seven days of expiry of the period given for receiving public comments, consider the public comments received under subsection (2) and—

(a) in the case of the chairperson, forward three names to the President; and

(b) in the case of any other member, nominate seven persons for appointment and submit their names to the National Assembly for vetting.

(4) The President shall, within fourteen days of receipt of the names of successful applicants forwarded under subsection (3)(a), nominate a person for appointment as the chairperson of the Authority and submit the name of the nominee to the National Assembly for vetting.

(5) If the National Assembly approves the nominees submitted under subsections (3)(b) and (4), within fourteen days after receiving the notification to that effect—

- (a) in the case of the chairperson, the President shall appoint the nominee as the chairperson of the Authority; and
  - (b) in the case of any other member, the Cabinet Secretary shall appoint the nominees as members of the Board of the Authority.
- (6) If the National Assembly rejects a nominee submitted under subsections (3)(b) or (4), the President or the Cabinet Secretary, as the case may be, shall submit a new nominee and the provisions of this section shall apply with necessary modifications with respect to the new nominee.
- (7) Subject to subsection (8), if, after expiry of a period of thirty days from the date the nomination of a person under subsection (3)(b) or (4), the National Assembly has neither approved nor rejected the nomination of that person, the nominee shall be deemed to have been approved by the National Assembly.
- (8) In reckoning time for purposes subsection (7), the period the National Assembly is in recess shall not be taken into account.”

(iii) by renumbering subsections (5) and (6) as subsection (8) and (9), respectively;

- (b) in the proposed new section 6C, by—
  - (i) renumbering the existing provision as subclause (1);
  - (ii) by inserting the following new subclause immediately after the renumbered subclause (1)—

34. The principal Act is amended by deleting section 102 and substituting therefor following new section—

Establishment of the Communications and Multimedia Appeals Tribunal.

102. (1) There is established a Tribunal to be known as the Communications and Multimedia Appeals Tribunal (hereinafter referred to as “the Tribunal”) which shall consist of not more than seven members, as follows—

- (a) a chairperson nominated by the Judicial Service Commission, who shall be a person qualified for appointment as a judge of the High Court of Kenya and who shall also possess experience in communication policy and law;

- (b) at least four persons possessing knowledge and experience in media, telecommunication, postal, courier systems, radio communications, information technology or business practice and finance, and who are not in the employment of the Government, the Media Council or the Authority.

(2) Within fourteen days of the commencement of this Act, or of the occurrence of a vacancy in the office of a member of the Tribunal, the Cabinet Secretary shall—

- (a) by notice in the Gazette and in at least two newspapers of national circulation, declare vacancies in the Tribunal, and invite applications from qualified persons; and
- (b) convene a selection panel for the purpose of selecting suitable candidates for appointment as members of the Tribunal.

(3) The selection panel referred to in subsection (2) shall consist of five members drawn from the following organisations—

- (a) the Ministry for the time being responsible for information, communication and technology;
- (b) the Media Council;
- (c) the Telecommunications Service Providers Organisation of Kenya;
- (d) the Courier Industry Association of Kenya; and
- (e) the Authority.

(4) At its first meeting, the selection panel shall appoint a chairperson and a vice-chairperson who shall be of opposite gender.

(5) An application in respect of a vacancy declared under subsection (2) shall be forwarded to the selection panel within seven days of the publication of the notice.

(6) The selection panel shall, subject to this section, determine its own procedure and the Cabinet Secretary shall provide it with such facilities and other support as it may require for the discharge of its functions under this section.

(7) The selection panel shall consider the applications, shortlist and publish the names and qualifications of all the applicants and those shortlisted by the panel in the Gazette and in at least two daily newspapers of national circulation, within seven days from the expiry of the deadline of receipt of applications under subsection (5).

(8) The selection panel shall interview the shortlisted applicants within fourteen days from the date of publication of the list of short listed applicants under subsection (7).

(9) After carrying out the interviews, the selection panel shall select three persons qualified to be appointed as members of the Tribunal, for each vacant position, and forward the names to the Cabinet Secretary.

(10) The Cabinet Secretary, shall, within seven days of receipt of the names, by notice in the Gazette, appoint a member or members to the Tribunal.

(11) Upon receipt of the notice of rejection under subsection (11), the selection panel shall submit fresh nominations and the procedure set out under this section shall, with necessary modifications, apply.

(12) Despite the foregoing provisions of this section, the Cabinet Secretary may, by notice in the Gazette, extend the period specified in respect of any matter under this section by a period not exceeding fourteen days.

(13) In selecting, nominating, approving or appointing the members of the Tribunal, the selection panel and the Cabinet Secretary shall—

- (a) ensure that the nominees to the Tribunal reflect the interests of all sections of the society;
- (b) ensure equal opportunities for persons with disabilities and other marginalized groups; and
- (c) ensure that not more than two-thirds of the members shall be of the same gender.

(14) The selection panel shall stand dissolved upon the appointment of the members of the Tribunal.

(15) The members of the Tribunal shall hold office for a period of three years, but shall be eligible for reappointment for one further term for a period not exceeding three years.

(16) The office of a member of the Tribunal shall become vacant—

- (a) at the expiration of three years from the date of appointment;
- (b) if the member accepts any office the holding of which, if he or she were not a member of the Tribunal, would make him or her ineligible for appointment to the office of a member of the Tribunal;
- (c) if he or she is removed from the membership of the Tribunal by the Cabinet Secretary, on recommendation of a selection panel comprised of representatives of the bodies identified in subsection (3), for failure to discharge the functions of the member's office, whether arising from infirmity of body or mind or from any other cause, or for misbehaviour; and
- (d) if he or she resigns the office of member of the Tribunal.

Complaints.

102A. (1) A person aggrieved by—

- (a) any publication by or conduct of a journalist or media enterprise; or
- (b) anything done against a journalist or media enterprise that limits or interferes with the constitutional freedom of expression of such journalist or media enterprise, may make a written complaint to the Tribunal setting out the grounds for the complaint, nature of the injury or damage suffered and the remedy sought.

(2) A complaint under this section may be made—

- (a) orally, either in person or by any form of electronic communication; or
- (b) in writing, setting out the grounds for the complaint, nature of the injury or damage suffered and the remedy sought.

(3) Where complaints are oral, the Tribunal may require them to be reduced in writing within seven days, unless it is satisfied there are good reasons for not doing so.

(4) A complainant shall disclose to the Tribunal—

- (a) the complainant's name and address; and
- (b) other information relating to the complainant's identity that the Tribunal may reasonably require.

(5) Despite subsection (4), the Tribunal may—

- (a) keep information provided by a complainant confidential if there are special circumstances to do so, or the Tribunal considers it is in the complainant's interests to do so; or
- (b) accept an anonymous complaint concerning an issue of public interest or where no clearly identifiable person or group is affected.

(6) The Tribunal may require a complainant to provide more information about the complaint within such reasonable time as the Tribunal may determine.

(7) The Tribunal may, at any time, require a complaint or information provided by a complainant to be verified by the complainant by oath or statutory declaration,

(8) Without prejudice to the functions of the Authority or the Media Council, the Authority or the Council may take up a complaint on its own initiative, and forward the same to the Tribunal for determination where in its opinion the complaint has public interest implications.

Procedure
upon complaint.

102B. (1) Upon receipt of a complaint, the Tribunal shall notify, in writing, the party against whom the complaint has been made, within fourteen-days of receipt of the complaint, stating the nature of the complaint, the breach, act or omission complained of and the date on which the matter shall be considered by the Tribunal.

(2) The notice referred to in subsection (1) shall require the person against whom the complaint is made to respond to the complaint in writing or appear before it at the hearing of the complaint.

(3) After considering each party's submissions, the Tribunal shall then conduct a preliminary assessment to determine the admissibility or otherwise of the complaint lodged within fourteen days.

(4) The Tribunal or any of its panels may, after conducting a preliminary assessment of a complaint, and being of the opinion that the complaint is devoid of merit or substance, dismiss such complaint and give reasons thereto.

(5) A party may, within fourteen days from the date of dismissal, apply for review or variation of the Tribunal's decision under subsection (4).

Proceedings
by the Tribunal.

102C. (1) The Tribunal shall sit at such times and in such places as it may appoint.

(2) The proceedings of the Tribunal shall be open to the public save where the Tribunal, for good cause, otherwise directs.

(3) For purposes of hearing and determining any cause or matter under this Act or the Media Council Act, the chairperson and four members of the Tribunal shall form a quorum.

(4) A member of the Tribunal who has a direct interest in any matter which is the subject of the proceedings before the Tribunal shall not take part in those proceedings.

(5) Any person who is a party to proceedings before the Tribunal may appear in person or be represented by an Advocate before the Tribunal.

(6) Except as expressly provided in this Act, the Media Council Act, or any regulations made thereunder, the Tribunal shall regulate its own procedure.

Attendance before the Tribunal.

102D. (1) The Tribunal may—

(a) make such orders for the purposes of securing the attendance of any person at any place where the Tribunal is sitting, discovery or production of any document concerning a matter before the Tribunal or the investigation of any contravention of this Act or the Media Council Act, as it deems necessary or expedient;

(b) take evidence on oath and may for that purpose administer oaths; or

- (c) on its own motion summon and hear any person as witness.
  - (2) Any person who—
    - (a) fails to attend the Tribunal after having been required to do so under subsection (1)(a);
    - (b) refuses to take oath or affirmation before the Tribunal or, being a public officer refuses to produce any article or document when lawfully required to do so by the Tribunal;
    - (c) knowingly gives false evidence or information which he knows to be misleading before the Tribunal; or
    - (d) at any sitting of the Tribunal—
      - (i) wilfully insults any member or officer of the Tribunal;
      - (ii) wilfully interrupts the proceedings or commits any contempt of the Tribunal;
      - (iii) fails or neglects to comply with an award, decision, order, direction or notice confirmed by the Tribunal commits an offence under this Act;
    - (e) fails or neglects to comply with an award, decision, order, direction or notice confirmed by the Tribunal commits an offence under this Act.

Decisions of the Tribunal.

102E. (l) The Tribunal may, after hearing the parties to a complaint—

- (a) order the offending party to publish an apology and correction in such manner as the Tribunal may specify;
- (b) order the return, repair, or replacement of any equipment or material confiscated or destroyed;
- (c) make any directive and declaration on freedom of expression;
- (d) issue a public reprimand of the journalist or media enterprise involved;
- (e) order the offending editor of the broadcast, print or on-line material to publish the Tribunal's decision in such manner as the Tribunal may specify;

- (f) impose a fine of not more than twenty million shillings on any respondent media enterprise and a fine of not more than one million shillings on any journalist adjudged to have violated this Act or the Code of Conduct for the Conduct of Journalism set out in the Media Council Act, where upon such a fine shall be a debt due to the aggrieved party and recoverable as such;
- (g) in its reasons for its findings, record a criticism of the conduct of the complainant in relation of the complaint, where such criticism, is in its view, warranted;
- (h) recommend the suspension or removal from the register of the journalist involved;
- (i) make any supplementary or ancillary orders or directions that it may consider necessary for carrying into effect orders or directives made.

(2) The Tribunal may make any or a combination of the orders set out in subsection (1).

Appeals to the Tribunal.

102F. (1) Unless otherwise expressly provided in this Act, the Media Council Act or any other law, where this Act or the Media Council Act, empowers the Media Council or the Authority to make decisions, such decisions may be subject to an appeal to the Tribunal in accordance with such procedures as may be established by the Tribunal for that purpose.

(2) Any person who is aggrieved by an action or decision of the Media Council, the Authority or a person licensed under this Act, may within sixty days after the occurrence of the event or the making of the decision, against which he is dissatisfied, make a claim or appeal to the Tribunal.

(3) Upon any appeal, the Tribunal may—

- (a) confirm, set aside or vary the order or decision in question;
- (b) exercise any of the powers which could have been exercised by the Media Council or the Authority in the proceedings in connection with which the appeal is brought; or
- (c) make such other order, including an order for costs, as it may consider necessary.

Appeals
from decision of the Tribunal.

102G. (1) Any person aggrieved by a decision or order of the Tribunal may, within thirty days of such decision or order, appeal against such decision or order to the High Court.

(2) No decision or order of the Tribunal shall be enforced until the time for lodging an appeal has expired or, where the appeal has been commenced until the appeal has been determined.

(3) The decision of the High Court on any appeal under this section shall be final.

Assessor
s.

102H. The chairperson of the Tribunal may appoint any persons with special skills or expert knowledge on any issues which are the subject matter of any proceedings or inquiry before the Tribunal to act as assessors in an advisory capacity, in any case where it appears to the Tribunal that such special skills or knowledge are required for proper determination of the matter.

Remuneratio
members of
the Tribunal.

The chairperson and members of the Tribunal shall be paid such allowances as the Salaries and Remuneration Commission may determine.

Liability of
members.

102I. The chairperson or other members of the Tribunal shall not be liable to be sued in a civil court for an act done or omitted to be done or ordered to be done by them in the discharge of their duty as members of the Tribunal, whether or not within the limits of their jurisdiction, provided they, at the time, in good faith, believed themselves to have jurisdiction to do or order the act complained of, and no officer of the Tribunal or other person bound to execute the lawful warrants, orders or other process of the Tribunal shall be liable to be sued in any court for the execution of a warrant, order or process which he would have been bound to execute if within the jurisdiction of the Tribunal
