

DAY 1 | AGENDA

- 08:00      Asset Owners Masterclass: Private Equity and Permanent Capital Vehicles (PCV)
An executive training and development programme is exclusive to senior executives of fund trustees, SWFs, pension funds, insurance companies, development financial institutions, and industry regulators.
-
- 12:30      Registration And Networking Refreshment
-
- 13:00      Welcome Address And Opening Remarks
-
- 13:05      Going Beyond A Compelling Investment Narrative
Dr. Moses Ikiara, Managing Director, Kenya Investment Authority
-
- 13:20      Regulating For Market Stability And Investment Harmony
An open conversation on the policy framework and initiatives to strengthen investor confidence by improving synergies between the private sector and financial markets. The session also sheds highlights the role of the central bank a catalyst for innovation and sustainable economic growth.
-
- 13:45      Positioning Alternative Assets In Pensions And Insurers Investment Portfolio
Sundeep Raichura, Group CEO, Zamara
-
- 14:00      The Open Conversation With Kenya's Pension And Retirement Funds
How and where infrastructure, Private Equity and real assets allocations fit into their asset mix? What were the 2017 highlights, focus and expectations for 2018? What changes are being considered for 2018? What strategies for creating Value & risk-adjusted returns?
Hosea Kili, CEO, CPF Financial Services
Simon Nyakundi, CEO, Kenya Railways Staff Retirement Benefit Scheme
-
- 14:45      Private Equity: Emerging Paradigms In Direct Investing, Permanent Capital Vehicle
Although less conventional than typical PE funds, PCV are becoming increasingly influential. With investors increasingly looking at investment in longer term capital vehicles, managers need to ensure they get their approach to valuation right. What are the advantages of PCVs over typical closed-end PE funds? What are the renewed model for allocating private capital?
-
- 15:30      Coffee And Networking Break

- 15:45      Legal Framework For Accessing Alternative Assets In Kenya's Private Markets
Available for Sponsor
-
- 16:00      In Conversation With Geoffrey Odundo & Paul Muthaura On Kenya's Public Markets
There is significant institutional capital flowing into Kenya. However, faced with stiff challenges from some of the region's economies - Can Kenya continue to mobilize sustainable institutional and private capital into its public markets? The session takes a look at product driven innovations, regulation and partnerships diversifying the capital pool accessing or considering accessing Kenya's public markets.
Geoffrey Odundo, CEO, Nairobi Securities Exchange
Paul Muthaura, CEO, Capital Markets Authority
-
- 16:30      Deepening Kenya's Debt Capital Markets
The penetration of pensions and insurance savings is vital for capital markets developments. However, most important are initiatives and innovations that will channel those savings into long-term capital markets instruments. With an emphasis on debt capital markets, this session looks at where the capital markets are going and how pension funds and insurers fit into Kenya's capital markets development.
-
- 17:15      A Structured Approach to The Hunt for High Yield
Reserved for Cytonn Investment
-
- 17:30      Networking Lunch And Close Of Day One KeAll

DAY 2 | AGENDA

08:00 Registration And Networking Refreshment

---

09:00 KeAll Day One Recap

---

09:05 Implementing Catalysts for Sustainable Insurance Impact

---

Regulating for Inclusive Impact - focus on retirement benefits industry
Nzomo Mutuku, Acting CEO, Retirement Benefits Authority

---

09:40 Insuring Growth: Insurers As Long-term Asset Owners

The insurance sector is critical to economic growth, attracting global capital and serving the needs of consumers. It plays a fundamental role in strengthening the resilience of local communities, sustaining regional growth, or underpinning global trade. This standout session convenes industry leaders to debate the major issues affecting the Kenya's insurance sector and the role of insurers as long-term investors.

---

10:30 Alternative Sustainable Debt Financing

---

10:45 Emerging Debt Solution For Accessing Infrastructure Assets

One of the principal blocks to institutions wishing to invest in infrastructure is the absence of available debt investment structures that offer the diversification of risk required. This session looks at debt instruments that can help investors assess infrastructure assets.

---

11:30 Networking Break

---

11:45 Scaling Renewable and Solar Power in Kenya

Delivering sustainable grid-connected solar projects whilst developing the capacity to manage, structure and negotiate private power concessions.

---

12:00 Investing In Agri-Tech And Innovation In Infrastructure

- The outlook for agriculture production, storage and handling and value-add
- Stimulating private longer-term investment for sustained growth
- Emphasis on exploring and supporting the integration of digital services
- Enabling investment climate through consistent and predictable policies

Lucy Muchoki, CEO, Kenyan Agribusiness and Agroindustry Alliance

.

.

.

---

12:45 Long-Term Solutions For Listed And Unlisted Real Estate Portfolios

- Current state of the Kenya real estate markets and investors' appetite
  - Accessing the capital markets - debt and equity financing options and strategies
  - REITs: trends, challenges and global best practices
  - Emerging long-term private markets financing strategies
-

13:15 SPOTLIGHT ON BANKING INNOVATION

Developments Shaping The Future Of Asset Custody

Globally, the asset custody industry continues to evolve to include new areas such as client service, knowledge provision, data management, liquidity and risk management. How will custody business in Kenya develop in response to regulatory, technological changes, and market infrastructure developments?

Banking On Growth: Innovation, Inclusion And Solutions For SME Financing

Over 80 percent of small and medium-sized enterprises in Kenya and across Africa are either un-served or underserved. With marginal impact from private equity funds, this session showcases a leading bank that is leveraging emerging technologies and partnership with Fintechs to provide patient capital to small and medium-sized enterprises in Kenya.

---

14:00 Networking Lunch And Close Of Day Two KeAll

---